"Barney" Stockdale Figures in An-other Ugly Affair Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock John W. Osborne of Charleston Bottom, M. C. Marshall of Clermont county, O, and W. A. Stockdale of this city were in the saloon of Mr. John Brisbois ral rounds of drinks, and Mr. Oshores was considerably the worse for liquor. Mr. Stockdale was in pretty much the same fix, while Mr. Marshall was apparently sober.

At the conclusion of the box shaking all three stood at the counter talking, when, without the alighest warning, provocation, Stockdale whipped out a knife and attacked Mr. Osborne, breaking his nose and inflicting two horrbite cuts, one on the left side of the neck barely missing the jugular, and another in the left side below the shoulder. After the first stroke Mr. Marshall jumped between the men to prevent estight gash in the hand.

Both Osborne and Marshall had come to the city to attend the Soldiers Reminon, the former having been a member of Company H, Twelfth Ohio, and the latter a member of Company H, Tenth Kentucky Cavaliry.

Towner was taken to T. Taulhee's Company H, Twelfth Ohio, and control of the was removed to his home.

We are somewhat torn up on the outside of our storerooms by reason of remodeling our windows. When done we will present quite a formidable "Front." The "Inside," however, represents a herculean strength that only is derived from handling merchandise superior in quality and at the prices we sell them—cheaper by far than the ordinary run of ready-made clothing. Here you find the choice production of four or five of the most famous of Rochester's manufacturers.

None Made and Fit Like Them in the World!

The hundreds of young and old who buy them of us will tell you so. In this season's stock we are stronger than ever before—strong in quality and weak in price. The quantities we buy, and the discounts obtained by paying for them as soon as they come in, enable us to sell you the best at reasonable prices. We cannot tell you much more about our Shoes than you already know. No sensational prices. We simply buy the best made, sell them as low as conforms with good business ethics; and if you buy a pair that are guaranteed to you to wear well, your money back if they don't.

A NEW BOOK! by G. B. McCutcheon. GRAUSTARK! The story of a love behind a throne. The greatest novel of the Twentieth Century. The Chicago Tribune says: "Lovers of a good, rushing novel with abundance of thrill and dash in it can turn with confidence to 'GRAUSTARK,' and having taken up the book it is safe to say the reader will not lay it saide until it is finished, for the story is one that interests from the first with an interest that does not lessen or lapse anywhere throughout the book, and the reader, once under the spell, is not apt to wish to escape until he knows 'how it all comes out.' The tale is undeniably entertaining, is told with fine rapidity, and the characters live and act constantly and untiringly."

London is said to be a great center of narchists. This being the case, a contemporary declares that "the world is looking to England to do her duty." But this part of the world had better look to itself to do its duty. We have many anarchists at home, and they did not all come from abroad. They can not be extirpated by the punishment of one of them when he commits actual murder, but we shall not do our duty until we do extirpate them.

A Convict in the Nebraska Peniten tiary, Supposed to Be a Man, Proves to Be a Woman.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct., 4.—For 11 months the officials at the Nebraska state penitentiary have supposed that a prisoner known as Burt Martin was a man. The discovery that the contest is a woman, and that her real name is Lena Martin, was made two days ago by the prison physician. The story leaked out Thursday night. She was a restent, tired and convicted as a man, a year ago, for horsestening. Recently her cell mate intimated to the guards that an investigation would not be barren of developments. This was made when the prison physician was called to attend her. She has donned woman's clothes and will serve the *eminder of her three years' sentence.
